

For subs who do not wish to be called at all

(but need to remain on the Sub List)

Click on "Setup Calling Times"

The screenshot shows the Aesop website interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Home' and 'Logout'. Below it is an 'Interactive Calendar' for November 2011. A red arrow points to the 'Setup Calling Times' link in the left-hand menu. The main content area displays 'Good Morning' and 'Messages' with a 'PART TIME EMPLOYEES: PLEASE READ' notice. A table titled 'Upcoming Assignments for the next 30 days' shows 'No Assignments Found'. The footer contains a privacy policy and copyright information.

Click "I prefer not to be called by Aesop" then "next"

The screenshot shows the 'Define Call Times' page. It displays the user's defined call times: Morning (5:30 AM - 12:00 PM) and Evening (4:30 PM - 8:30 PM). Below this, a table shows 'Don't call me today' for all days of the week. A 'Choose From Below' section contains three radio button options: 'Specify Call Times', 'Specify No Call Days', and 'I prefer not to be called by Aesop'. A red arrow points to the third option. 'Next' and 'Cancel' buttons are visible below the options. The footer contains a privacy policy and copyright information.
